

Obersalzberg Conference: Call for Papers

'The Obersalzberg as a Historical Landscape: the destruction, militarisation, destruction and revival of the Obersalzberg'

Tuesday 29 July – Saturday 2 August 2008

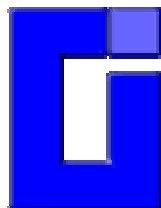

Some suggested general categories and themes:

1. The Obersalzberg before Hitler's arrival
2. Hitler's arrival and early years on the Obersalzberg
3. 'Nazi Occupation' – 1933-1945
4. Hitler's Alpine Retreat
 - a. Military Headquarters and Hitler's military/strategic decision making
 - b. Landscape and buildings
 - c. Myths and Memory
 - d. Nature, symbolism and the cult of personality
5. Allied military action on the Obersalzberg
 - a. British air operations
 - b. US and French army operations to take the 'last prize' of the Third Reich
6. Beneath the Mountain: German military installations and the 'Bunker' system
7. US Occupation – 1945-1995
8. Story of the Dokumentation
9. The Obersalzberg in the 21st Century

Please send your proposals (either for an individual paper or for a panel of up to three papers) to: Dr David Hall at dhall.jscsc@da.mod.uk or by regular mail at Defence Studies Department, Joint Services Command and Staff College, Shrivenham, Swindon, SN6 8TS, United Kingdom

All proposals should include a title, a brief description of the purpose and theme of the paper(s), an abstract of the paper(s), brief CV of the presenter(s) and contact information. The new deadline for proposals is 15 April 2008.

The Obersalzberg Conference is an International Conference in partnership with King's College London, the Obersalzberg Institute, and the Society for Military History

Society for Military History