

TENTATIVE PROGRAM OF EVENTS

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-1 Gold Ballroom

Generals, Memory, and the Politics of the Lost Cause

Chair: Mark Snell, George Tyler Moore Center for the Study of the Civil War

"The 'Fatal Halt' versus 'Bad Conduct': John B. Gordon, Jubal Early and the Battle of Cedar Creek"

Keith Bohannon, State University of West Georgia

"William Mahone, the Lost Cause, and Civil War History"

Kevin M. Levin, St. Anne's-Belfield

"The Lane-Mahone Controversy: Honor, Politics, and Civil War Memory"

Kenneth W. Noe, Auburn University

Commentator: Paul Anderson, Clemson University

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-2 Calhoun Room

Professionalism between the World Wars in the West

Chair: John Edward Kuykendall, Charleston Southern University

"Bonner Fellers: American Colonial Prototype?"

Grant K. Goodman, University of Kansas

"The Professionalization of the Australian Army (1919-1939)"

Augustine Meaher IV, University of Melbourne

"A Skeptical Government and a Very Densely Ignorant Public: The Tense Civil-Military Relations and the Professionalization of the Royal Canadian Air Force"

Rachel Lea Heide, Carleton University

Commentator: John H. Lavalle, Western New Mexico University

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-3 Pinckney Room

Aspects of Amphibious Warfare in the Early Modern World

Chair: John F. Guilmartin, Jr., The Ohio State University

"Amphibious Warfare in the Sixteenth Century: Lacustrine and Riverine Warfare during the Irish Nine Years' War"

Mark C. Fissel, The Augusta Arsenal

"The 'Blue-Water' Dimension of King William's War: The Anglo-Dutch Alliance, Grand Strategy, and Amphibious Operations during the Nine Years' War, 1689-1697"

John M. Stapleton, Jr., United States Military Academy

"Classical Military Thought and Amphibious Strategy in the Eighteenth-Century British Army"

Mark H. Danley, University of Southern Mississippi

Commentator: John A. Lynn, University of Illinois

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-4 Drayton Room

The Vietnam War: New Sources and New Interpretations

Chair: James Reckner, Vietnam Archive, Texas Tech University

"Researching the Vietnam War in the Digital Age: The Virtual Vietnam Archive at Texas Tech University"

Stephen F. Maxner, Vietnam Archive, Texas Tech University

"New Sources from the Other Side: A Case Study"

Mark Moyar, United States Marine Corps University

"The Vietnam War as Seen Through a Different Lens: Mysteries, Sources, and Discoveries through the Utilization of Vietnamese Sources"

Andrew W. Wiest, The University of Southern Mississippi

Commentator: James Reckner, Vietnam Archive, Texas Tech University

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-5 Laurens Room

Everything You always wanted to know about research (and fellowships) at Service history offices, but did not know who to ask

Chair: Janet G. Valentine, United States Army Center of Military History

"Resources of the Naval Historical Center"

Edward J. Marolda, United States Naval Historical Center

"'One-Stop-Shop Research' at the Marine Corps Historical Center"

Charles D. Melson, United States Marine Corps Historical Center

"Mission and researcher Access at the U.S. Army Center of Military History (CMH)"

Rebecca C. Raines, United States Army Center of Military History

Commentator: Janet G. Valentine, United States Army Center of Military History

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION A (0815-1000)

A-6 Rutledge Room

The U.S. Navy at the Turn of the Twentieth Century

Chair: Evelyn M. Cherpak, United States Naval War College

"Growing their Own: The U.S. Navy's Naval Apprentice System, 1875-1905"

Laurence Burke, Carnegie Mellon University

"U.S. Navy Commander Benjamin F. Tilley: The Remarkably Successful Supreme Ruler of American Samoa, 1900-1901"

Diana L. Ahmad, University of Missouri-Rolla

Commentator: Malcolm Muir, Virginia Military Institute

SESSION B (1015-1200)

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-1 Gold Ballroom

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION: Is World War II the New Civil War? Perspectives on the Place of World War II Studies in the Academy and Popular Culture

Chair: Mark Parillo, Kansas State University

Participants:

Mark Parillo, Kansas State University

Allan Millett, The Ohio State University

Charles Sanders, Kansas State University

Mark Stoler, University of Vermont

Janet G. Valentine, United States Army Center of Military History

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-2 Calhoun Room

Meeting Terrorism: Military Approaches, New and Old

Chair: Gary Solis, United States Military Academy

“Unprivileged Belligerency: The IRA”

Michael F. Noone, Catholic University

“Abu Ghraib: A Critical Failure of Leadership”

Maritza S. Ryan, United States Naval War College

“New Missions, New Teaching: Evolving Education at West Point in the Age of Terrorism”

Mark D. Welton, United States Military Academy

Commentator: Patrick Finnegan, United States Military Academy

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-3 Pinckney Room

Re-Thinking the American Revolution in the South

Chair: James R. Picuch, College of William and Mary

“That Unhappy Affair: ‘Horatio Gates and American Defeat at Camden, August 16, 1780”

John R. Maass, The Ohio State University

“The Continental Army: Insurgent Peace-keepers?”

James Mc Intyre, Moraine Valley Community College

“Cornwallis and the Slaves of Virginia: A New Look at the Yorktown Campaign”

Gregory J.W. Urwin, Temple University

Commentator: Lawrence E. Babits, East Carolina University

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-4 Drayton Room

United States Air Force bases: Locating the Sites

Chair: Frederick J. Shaw, United States Air Force Historical Research Agency

“Basing the Big Bombers: Strategic Air Command Bases, 1947-1960”

Daniel L. Haulman, United States Air Force Historical Research Agency

“Consolidating the Force, 1961-1987”

Forrest L. Marion, United States Air Force Historical Research Agency

“Basing the Modern Air Force, 1988-2003”

Jeffrey P. Sahaida, United States Air Force Historical Research Agency

Commentator: William P. Head, Warner Robins Air Logistics Center Office of History

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-5 Laurens Room

War and Society in Southern Africa

Chair: William T. Dean, United States Air Force Air War College

“Shaka ‘Mandhlesilo’ and the Zulu Army: A Way of Life”

Fankie Monama, University of Stellenbosch

“Slogging across the Veldt: British Volunteers and the Guerrilla Phase of the South African War”

Stephen M. Miller, University of Maine

“Insurgency and Counter-Insurgency in Southern Africa, 1900-1902”

Ian Van der Waag, University of Stellenbosch

Commentator: William T. Dean, United States Air Force Air War College

, 25 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION B (1015-1200)

B-6 Rutledge Room

The Spanish Army, 1895-1945

Chair: Dennis Showalter, Colorado College

“Counter-Insurgency from Cuba to Castile: The Evolution of Spanish Tactical and Operational Thought, 1895-1936”

Geoffrey Jensen, Virginia Military Institute

“The Legion Saves the Republic”

José E. Alvarez, University of Houston-Downtown

“The Spanish Military during World War II”

Wayne H. Bowen, Ouachita Baptist University

Commentator: Dennis Showalter, Colorado College

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-1 Gold Ballroom

The Recovery and Identification of World War II Dead: Studies in Applied History

Chair: Bradley L. Coleman, United States Department of State

“The Contributions of American and European Scientists to the War Dead Identification Program in Europe”

Christopher McDermott, Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command

“Do ‘the Best You Can’: The Limits of Scientific Authority in the Identification of Unknown U.S. Servicemen”

Heather Harris, Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command

“Missing in Burma: Technologies Lost and Found in the Search for Missing World War II Aircrews”

Mark C. Russell, Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command

Commentator: Emerson Wiles, III, University of Memphis Law School

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-2 Calhoun Room

From the Skies to the Depths: Allied Air Anti-Submarine Warfare in the Second World War

Chair: C. L. W. Page, United Kingdom Ministry of Defence, Naval Historical Branch

“Fido’s Ears: An Acoustic Torpedo for Hunting U-boats”

Kathleen Broome Williams, Bronx Community College and Graduate Center, CUNY

“Of Crows and Moles – Air Anti-Submarine Warfare, 1939-1945”

W. J. R. Gardner, United Kingdom Ministry of Defence, Naval Historical Branch

“Closing the Atlantic Air Gaps: Myths and Mysteries”

M. Llewellyn-Jones, United Kingdom Ministry of Defence, Naval Historical Branch

Commentator: C. L. W. Page, United Kingdom Ministry of Defence, Naval Historical Branch

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-3 Pinckney Room

War without Professionals in Colonial America

Chair: Guy Chet, University of North Texas

“Alternative Explanations for the Outbreak of the Pequot War and the Assault on Mystic Fort”

Matthew S. Muehlbauer, Temple University
“For the Best Ordering of the Militia’: The Advent of Committees of Militia in Massachusetts Bay, 1652-1676”
Kyle F. Zelner, University of Southern Mississippi
“Forced to Fly for Our Lives: New England refugees in King Philip’s War”
David M. Corlett, College of William and Mary
Commentator: Ricardo A. Herrera, Mount Union College

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-4 Drayton Room
Black Militias in the Late Nineteenth Century

Chair: Marcus Cox, The Citadel
“Any person capable of doing military duty”: Post Reconstruction Black militiamen in Georgia, North Carolina, and Virginia—Constructing a Profile”
Gregory Mixon, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
“The Rise and Fall of Black Militias in Reconstruction Louisiana”
James K. Hogue, University of North Carolina at Charlotte
Commentator: Charles Johnson, Jr., Morgan State University

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-5 Laurens Room
Perspectives on the Development of Nineteenth-Century American Military Professionalism

Chair: Brian Linn, Texas A & M University
“Changing Approaches to the Study of Nineteenth-Century American Military Professionalism”
Sam Watson, United States Military Academy
“Nineteenth-Century American Military Professionalism: The Accommodation to Politics”
Donald B. Connelly, United States Special Operations Command, 2003-2004
Commentators:
David Fitzpatrick, Washtenaw Community College
Brian Linn, Texas A & M University
William B. Skelton, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION C (0815-1000)

C-6 Rutledge Room
War and its Impact on the British during the Twentieth Century

Chair: Jeffrey Grey, Australian Defence Forces Academy
“The Glories and the Sadness: Shaping the National Memory of the First World War in Great Britain, Canada, and Australia, 1914-1939”
Mark Sheftall, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
“Enlistment in the British Army during the First World War”
David Silbey, Alvernia College
“War and the Making (and Unmaking) of the Modern British Monarchy”
Charles Carlton, North Carolina State University
Commentator: Jeffrey Grey, Australian Defence Forces Academy

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-1 Gold Ballroom
ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION: Memories of Valor—A Discussion with Medal of Honor Recipients

Chair: Timothy Frank, Independent Scholar
Colonel Roger Donlon
Major General James Livingston
Major Alfred Rascon
Colonel Leo Thorsness
Commentator: Eugenia C. Kiesling, United States Military Academy

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-2 Calhoun Room
‘They Will Not Disgrace Their Flag’: Political Generals in the American Civil War

Chair: Daniel E. Sutherland, University of Arkansas
“Major General John A. Logan: The Black Eagle of Illinois”
Gary L. Ecelbarger, Independent Scholar
“Nathaniel Prentiss Banks: Blundering to Obscurity”
Gary D. Joiner, Louisiana State University in Shreveport
“From Canine to Blenheim: Richard Taylor’s Tactics at Mansfield and Pleasant Hill”
Jeffery S. Prushankin, Pennsylvania State University-Abington College
Commentator: Robert J. Delassandro, United States Army War College

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-3 Pinckney Room
Haig’s Generals: British Army Commanders on the Western Front, 1914-1918

Chair: Michael B. Barrett, The Citadel
“Julian Byng and the Evolution of Warfare on the Western Front, 1914-1918”
Nikolas Gardner, University of Salford
“General Sir Edmund Allenby”
Matthew Hughes, Brunel University
“General Sir Henry Horne”
Simon Robins, Imperial War Museum
Commentator: Ian F.W. Beckett, University of Luton

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-4 Drayton Room
The Role of Military Leadership in Nineteenth-Century Egypt

Chair: Donald Stoker, United States Naval War College
“Egypt’s Just Sultan: General Louis Desaix as a Colonial Administrator”
Melanie S. Byrd, Valdosta State University
“The Final Days of Mehmet Ali’s Hybrid Army”
Letitia W. Ufford, Princeton Research Forum, National Coalition of Independent Scholars
“Officer Selection in the Army of the Khedive Ismail”
John Dunn, Valdosta State University
Commentator: George Gawrych, Baylor University

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-5 Laurens Room

POST COLD WAR CHALLENGES TO MILITARY PROFESSIONALISM

Chair: Stephen A. Bourque, California State University-Northridge
“Caught Between Professionalism and Nationalism: General-Lieutenant V. A. Mikhtyuk, the USSR, and the End of the Cold War”

Joseph P. Harahan, Defense Threat Reduction Agency
“Ten Years of Democracy: Education and the Rise of Professionalism in the South African National Defence Force (SANDF)”

Abel Esterhuysen, South African Military Academy
“The Arc of the American Army Profession: From Industrial Age to the Information Age”

Richard A. Lacquement, Jr., United States Naval War College
Commentator: Donald J. Mrozek, United States Air Force Academy

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION D (1015-1200)

D-6 Rutledge Room

Challenges for Military Professionalism in the Early Twentieth Century

Chair: Andrew Wiest, The University of Southern Mississippi
“Professionalization as Democratization: The American Experience of Constructing a Mass Army in World War I”

Jennifer D. Keene, Chapman University
“The Levée of the Masses and the Elite: Subjects and Citizens in the French Colonial Army in the Second World War”

Jacqueline Woodfork, Loyola University-New Orleans
“George Catlett Marshall and Bernard Law Montgomery: Contributions to the Establishment of a Professional Military”

Mary Kathryn Barbier, Mississippi State University
Commentator: Dennis Showalter, Colorado College

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-1 Gold Ballroom

Asymmetrical Warfare: The American Experience in the 18th and 19th Centuries

Chair: Gregory J. W. Urwin, Temple University
“Asymmetrical Warfare during the American Revolution’s Southern Campaign”

Lawrence E. Babits, East Carolina University
“Defeating Irregular War: The Federal Military Experience in the Civil War”

Robert R. Mackey, Office of Technology and Operations, Headquarters Department of the Army
“Defining the American Civil War’s Guerrilla Conflict”

Daniel E. Sutherland, University of Arkansas
Commentator: Joseph C. Fitzharris, University of St. Thomas

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-2 Calhoun Room

The World War II American Soldier in Myth and History

Chair: Edward M. Coffman, University of Wisconsin-Madison
“Here is Your War: Propaganda, the Press, and the Evolving American GI, 1942-1945”

Andrew J. Huebner, Brown University
“Who Should Serve? Selective Service Confronts World War II”

Robert C. Blackstone, University of Kansas
“The Analogue of Work: Memory and Motivation for World War II Soldiers”

Thomas A. Bruscino, Jr., Ohio University
Commentator: G. Kurt Piehler, Center for the Study of War and Society, University of Tennessee

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-3 Pinckney Room

Albion’s Lieutenants: The Issue of the Professional Officer in Eighteenth-Century Britain

Chair: Armstrong Starkey, Adelphi University
“Standing in the Shadow of Marlborough: Orkney and Argyle as Professional Soldiers”

Margaret D. Sankey, Minnesota State University-Mankato
“Upright Men Who Entered for Steady Advancement: Military Honor and the Reputation of Officers in the Mid-Eighteenth-Century British Army”

Scott N. Hendrix, University of Pittsburgh

“‘A Sure Retreat for Ignorance and Indolence’: The Critics of the Educational and Professional Standards of the British Army (1765-1785)”

Douglas Simes, University of Waikato
Commentator: Armstrong Starkey, Adelphi University

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-4 Drayton Room

The Clash of Military Cultures in the Age of the Boer Wars, 1880-1902

Chair: Bruce Vandervort, Journal of Military History
“A Clash of Military Cultures: The British and Boer Military Systems during the Transvaal Rebellion (First Boer War) of 1880-1881”

John Laband, Wilfrid Laurier University
“An Unprofessional Yet Successful Citizen Army? The Boer Commandos in the Anglo-Boer War of 1899-1902”

Fransjohan Pretorius, University of Pretoria
“The Natal Volunteers in the Anglo-Boer War, 1899-1902: Reality and Perception”

Mark Coghlan, KwaZulu-Natal Provincial Museum and Heritage Service
Commentator: Stephen M. Miller, University of Maine

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-5 Laurens Room

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION: The Military Profession and Postmodern Challenges:

A Three-Way Comparison of the United States, Canada, and Australia

Chair: Michael Ramsay, Kansas State University

United States

Roger J. Spiller, United States Army Command and General Staff College
Canada

Scot Robertson, University of Alberta

Australia

Jeffrey Grey, University College, Australian Defence Force Academy

, 26 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION E (1400-1545)

E-6 Rutledge Room

Military Museums as Sources: What Can Artifacts Contribute to the Writing Military

History

Chair: Barton C. Hacker, Smithsonian Institution
“Legermuseum, Royal Arms and Armour Museum”

Jan-Piet Puype

“Deutsches Historische Museum”

Rainer Rother

“Royal Armouries”

Robert D. Smith

“National Museum of American History, Smithsonian Institution”

Margaret S. Vining

Commentator: Barton C. Hacker, Smithsonian Institution

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-1 Gold Ballroom

Conscription in the Civil War

Chair: Rod Andrew, Clemson University

“Those Who Served: Civil War Conscription in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania”

Thomas I. Faith, George Washington University

“Florinda’s Confederate Draft, 1862-1865”

R. Boyd Murphree, State Archives of Florida

Commentator: Paul Cimbala, Fordham University

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-2 Calhoun Room

Douhet Reconsidered: Airpower in Iraq and Kosovo

Chair: H. P. Willmott, The Citadel

“Persian Gulf Campaign, 1991”

John Andreas Olsen, Royal Norwegian Air Force

“Kosovo Campaign”

Lieutenant General Michael C. Short, USAF Retired

“Persian Gulf Campaign, 2003”

Robert Pape, University of Chicago

Commentator: H.P. Willmott, The Citadel

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-3 Pinckney Room

U.S. Army Professionalism in a Time of Transition, 1830-1860

Chair: David Heidler, Colorado State University

“Expertise and the Rise of Responsibility: The Corps of Engineers & Military Professionalism in Antebellum America”

Mark A. Smith, University of Alabama

“Professionalism and Peace Operations: An Antebellum Perspective”

Tony R. Mullis, United States Air Command and Staff College

“Soldiers and Surgeons in the Antebellum Army”

James M. McCaffrey, University of Houston-Downtown

Commentator: Jeanne T. Heidler, United States Air Force Academy

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-4 Drayton Room

Professionalism and the Canadian Army, 1914-1945

Chair: Marc Milner, University of New Brunswick

“Professionalism by Design: Organizational Sources of Professionalism in the Canadian Corps, 1914-1918”

Glenn Leonard, University of New Brunswick

“Defending the Normandy Bridgehead: Canadian Army Professionalism in Defeating 12th SS Counter-Attacks, 7-10 June, 1944”

Mike Bechtold, Wilfrid Laurier University

“Only Professionals Need Apply! Canadian ‘Economy of Force’ Operations in Italy after D-Day”

Lee Windsor, University of New Brunswick

Commentator: Donald F. Bittner, United States Marine Corps Command and Staff College

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-5 Laurens Room

Military Professionalism and the U. S. Presidency

Chair: Lori L. Bogle, United States Naval Academy

“Washington’s Forgotten Maxim: Theodore Roosevelt and U.S. Army Reform”

James Pruitt, Texas A & M University

“Professionalism at a Price: The Joint Board, the Wilson Administration, and the War Scare with Japan in May 1913”

Jason Godin, Texas A & M University

“Japanese-U.S. Relations during America’s Withdrawal from Siberia: A New perspective on the Wilson Administration’s Decision Making”

Shusuke Takahara, Doshisha University

Commentator: Mark A. Stoler, University of Vermont

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION F (0815-1000)

F-6 Rutledge Room

Intelligence Gathering in an Ancient Context

Chair: James Tucci, United States Air War College

“Sparta and the Limits of Professionalism in Classical Greek Intelligence”

Frank Russell, Transylvania University

“‘Clerking for Caesar’: The Military and the Evolution of Roman Imperial Administration”

Robert Dise, Jr., University of Northern Iowa

“Evidence for Military Intelligence in Early Islamic Conquests”

Victoria Erhart, Strayer University-Montgomery

Commentator: Rose Mary Sheldon, Virginia Military Institute

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005

SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-1 Gold Ballroom

Mutiny, Desertion, and Insubordination in the German Context

Chair: Jonathan M. House, Gordon College

“The Anti-Hitler Military Resistance: A Psychological Explanation”

Robert B. Kane, Troy University-Montgomery

“Pulling the Trigger or Opting Out? German Policemen and Mass Murder in World War II”

Edward B. Westerman, United States Air Force School of Advanced Air and Space Studies

“Rhetoric and Reality: The German and British Deserter Debates of the 1990s & the Historic Record”

Douglas Peifer, United States Air Force Air Command and Staff College
Commentator: Jay B. Lockenour, Temple University

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-2 Calhoun Room

Professional By Whose Standards? The Problems of Meshing Doctors into the Army

Chair: Dale C. Smith, Uniformed Services University

“George M. Sternberg and the Rise of the Professional Military Medical Officer”

Stephen C. Craig, Uniformed Services University

“Doctors with No (Military) Training: The Affiliated Hospitals Program in the World Wars”

Sanders Marble, Office of the Surgeon General, United States Army

“Turning Doctors into Soldiers: The Role of the Medical Field Service School in Army Medical Education”

Lewis Barger, Office of the Surgeon General, United States Army

Commentator: Dale C. Smith, Uniformed Services University

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-3 Pinckney Room

Austro-Prussian Military professionalism in Early Modern Europe

Chair: Owen Connelly, University of South Carolina

“The Re-Definition of Expertise and the Evolution of Professional Standards in the Austrian Artillery Corps, 1744-1772”

Ken MacLennan, University of Illinois

“Austrian Professionalization and the Origins of the Seven Years’ War, 1748-1756”

Matt J. Schumann, University of Exeter

“The Prussian Model: Scharnhorst’s Notions of Military Professionalism”

Charles E. White, U.S. Army Forces Command

Commentator: Lee Eysturliid, The Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-4 Drayton Room

Education and Professionalism in Britain and Canada, 1850-1914

Chair: Michael S. Neiberg, United States Air Force Academy

“The British Army Officer Corps, 1850-1914: The Epitome of Professionalism?”

David Murphy, Irish Manuscripts Commission

“Formalizing Officer Education and Training in Canada’s Army, 1876-1914”

Andrew B. Godefroy, Canadian Army Directorate of Land Strategic Concepts

“The Education of the Victorian Line Officer Corps”

Corrine Mahaffey, University of Glasgow

Commentator: James B. Thomas, Houston Community College-Northwest

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-5 Laurens Room

Citizen-Soldiers and the Military Professional in Gilded Age America

Chair: Susannah Bruce, Sam Houston State University

“Problems of the Nineteenth-Century Army: Behind Rebellion, On the Plains”

Catherine R. Franklin, Oklahoma State University

“The Conservative Reaction to U.S. Army Professionalism, 1890-1900”

T.R. Brereton, Iowa Wesleyan College

“What’s in the Name: The National Guard and the End of the Town Militia”

Barry M. Stentiford, Grambling State University

Commentator: Jerry Cooper, University of Missouri-St. Louis

, 27 FEBRUARY 2005
SESSION G (1015-1200)

G-6 Rutledge Room

Medieval Military Professionalism

Chair: Everett L. Wheeler, Duke University

“The Question of Medieval Military Professionalism: Now and Then”

Kelly DeVries, Loyola College in Maryland

“Mercenaries and Tactical Units in the Armies of Henry II”

John Hosler, University of Delaware

“Military Command Structures and the Definition of Merit in Fourteenth-Century Castile”

Nicholás Agrait, Borough of Manhattan Community College/CUNY

Commentator: Barton S. Hacker, Smithsonian Institution